RE: Langwith class teacher update

Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to update you on staffing arrangements for Langwith Class over the coming weeks.

Firstly, I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr Johnson, who has done a fabulous job covering the class. His hard work, positivity, and dedication have been greatly appreciated by pupils, staff, and families alike. Mr Johnson will be leaving us on Friday 6th February to go travelling around the world, and while we are sad to see him go, we wish him the very best for his exciting adventure.

As you are aware, Mr Greenwood remains off sick, and we have received a current unfit for work note until 13th February. This means that we will continue with temporary cover for the class next week.

I am very pleased to inform you that Mrs Armstrong will be returning, on a supply basis, to cover the class on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. She will be joined by Mr Wood, a supply teacher well known to the school, who will teach the class on Thursday and Friday.

At present, we are unable to confirm staffing arrangements beyond half term. This will depend on whether another unfit for work note is received for Mr Greenwood after 13th February. Should Mr Greenwood remain off sick, Mr Wood has kindly agreed to provide full-time cover and is available from after half term up until the Easter break, should he be needed.

We appreciate your understanding and continued support as we ensure stability and the best possible provision for the children during this period of staff absence.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Kind regards,

Mrs Lisa Crossland
