RE: Langwith Class teacher update

Dear Parents and Carers,

I write with an update regarding the arrangements for the Langwith class teacher. Currently, Mr Greenwood remains off sick, and his current fit note runs until the 19th of January. It is likely that Mr Greenwood will remain off sick after the 19th, and we have agreed that Mr Johnson will continue as class teacher for the time being.

Mrs Johnson is doing a great job and is providing consistency for our Langwith children. Standards of behaviour and engagement remain good, and I would like to reassure you that all planning is in place and the full curriculum is being taught. I'm sure you will join me in thanking Mrs Johnson, Mrs Morton and Miss Tindall for keeping everything running smoothly in the absence of the substantive class teacher.

Should you need to communicate anything to Mr Johnson as class teacher, you are welcome to catch him briefly at drop-off or collection. Should you require a little more time, an appointment can be arranged. Alternatively, you may email office@cuckney.notts.sch.uk and your message will be passed on to Mr Johnson. She can then reply via the office email or may contact you by telephone.

I do hope this answers some questions that may have arisen. If you have any further questions, please do get in touch.

Once again thank you for your continued support,

Mrs Lisa Crossland
