

Post the Letters Game

Level 5

Adult Guidance

Ben discovers lots of letters have been delivered. Help him read the wh words on the letters!

For this activity, you will need one letter box (see below) and one letter per child.

- Print out two sets of word cards.
- Split the children into two groups.
- Children to line up in their group.
- Give each child a letter with a wh word on it.
- Children, in their team, take it in turns to read the word on their letter and post it in the letter box.
- The first team to post all of their letters are the winners!
